MAURITIUS

It was a privilege indeed to be in the country of Mauritius, situated in the middle of the Indian Ocean, east of Africa. I ministered in gospel meetings, revival meetings and pastors and leaders' meetings for fourteen days straight, sometimes ministering twice a day. It was so amazing to see the Word of the Lord doing its awesome work in the lives of the people. The Holy Spirit manifested His presence and power in our midst in every meeting. Every service was unique and special. People came to receive prayer with various needs, such as, healings, deliverance from captivity, family issues and crisis, and also laid hands on so many to receive the baptism and the infilling in the Holy Spirit. It was so wonderful to see so many lives returning back home rejoicing knowing that they had received the touch of the Lord and the Lord had ministered to them in a very special way.

Though Mauritius is a small and a beautiful country, yet there is a different side to the postcard picture of paradise. Pockets of the country are rampant with criminal activities and drug abuse and prostitution is widespread across the beautiful nation. Though there are many churches scattered through the island, yet they are weak spiritually and given to false doctrines. I carried the message “Fanning the Flame” believing the Lord for a great awakening and a move of the Holy Spirit in the nation of Mauritius. I had really felt a strong burden on my heart for the churches of Mauritius and my fellow soldiers and comrades who are in ministry. Through the mighty anointing of the Holy Spirit, I delivered the Word very powerfully and there was a great conviction among the pastors and the leaders to get back to the Word, Prayer and Seeking His Face.
